Dignity Champions Network

Over 120 people attended second meeting of Bradford's Dignity Champions Network in April at East Riddlesden Hall in Keighley.

Bradford LINK is now looking at everything our dignity champions told us. We hope to form some smaller workgroups where people can take action and make change happen.

Keighley Health and Wellbeing Centre

Bradford LINK helped to arrange the final meeting where people in Keighley could have their say on plans for a new health and wellbeing centre in the town.

We worked with Keighley Racial Inclusion Advisory Group (KRAIG) and the Health Partnership Project.

Some of the people who make the decisions about the centre were there to listen and answer questions.

A report about what was said is being written and will be handed to more people who make the decisions about the plans.
